PRESIDENT · LAW & DECREE · 19 MAY 2026

Amendments to the Labour Code and the narcological-service law take effect.

The central development of the review period is a set of amendments to the Labour Code of the Republic of Azerbaijan and to the Law on Narcological Service and Control. Adopted by the Milli Majlis as Law No. 394-VIIQD of 27 April 2026, the changes were brought into application by presidential decree on 19 May, which set out the corresponding implementing mechanisms.

The amendments link employment relations to narcological-control requirements and may create new obligations for employers. Employment-law practitioners should review the full text of the amendments and their entry-into-force conditions carefully.
